

News May 2011

Recently we started a cooperation with Special Valve Instrument in South Korea.

We are proud to work with their skilled team, led by Mr. Kim and Mr. Seo.

With a long track record in steam related equipment, their steam and condensate knowledge is prominent.

SVI certainly will be an excellent partner to serve the local market and provide prime answers to all related issues.